Dear Sir/ Madam,

Application for Registration of Society
"THE GAZA FUND"

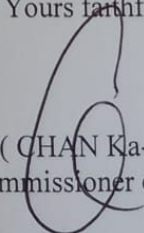

I refer to the letter from the society dated on 22 July 2021. Our processing of the application could not be proceeded without the following information from and / or actions taken by you:

- According to Article X and Article XI of your submitted "By-Laws" of your society that some of the contents may involve in the "Companies Ordinance", Cap. 622. Besides, some of the contents also show that your society will employ and pay salary to staff members, which may involve in the "Business Registration". As such, your society may require to establish under "Companies Ordinance" and may require "Business Registration" under the Inland Revenue Department." For details, you may refer to the Companies Ordinance, Cap. 622 and Business Registration Ordinance, Cap. 310, Laws of Hong Kong or Inland Revenue Department's information.

Please quote our reference (at the header of this letter) or attach this letter on the requested supplementary information/ document and return to the Societies Office within 14 days from the date of this letter; otherwise, your application may not be further processed.

Should you require further information, please contact the Societies Office on 2860 3573.

Yours faithfully,

(CHAN Ka-ye)
for Commissioner of Police
